

THE COMMERCIAL OFFER FOR THE SUMMER SCHOOL OF THE ORTHODOX MUSIC FESTIVAL

The Orthodox Music Festival offers you to take part in its summer school on a commercial basis.

The cost of participation in the program is 12300 roubles. (300 euros).

The cost includes:

- the registration fee
- visa support (if necessary and provided there are cultural relationships between the Russian Federation and your country)
- transfer from the airport, coach or railway station and back provided you arrive and leave on the official dates of the arrival and departure of the festival participants (Arrival – July, 2, 2012, departure – July, 22, 2012(if you are taking the boat trip to Valaam). In case of different arrival/departure dates the participant will have to organize his/her own transfer from the airport or coach/railway station and back by him-/herself.
- studying according to the program together with scholarship students (only in Russian and English)
- excursions according to the program
- the tickets to all the concerts in the Festival program
- a trip to Novgorod the Great (a concert, a walking tour and lunch)
- transfer in the mornings to the place of studying (provided you live in the same hotel as other participants)

The price does not include accommodation, meals and travelling expenses.

If you want to live together with the other students, we can accommodate you either together with other participants or in a twin room for single accommodation.

Breakfast at the hotel where the participants are living is included in the price.

Charged separately

A trip to Valaam on July, 19-22, 2012.

The cost of the trip:

800 roubles (200 euros) – a place in a two-person cabin

6150 roubles (150 euros) – a place in a four-person cabin

The cost includes: accommodation onboard a steamboat for 3 nights, transfer from the place of studying to the steamboat, fullboard meals onboard, excursions and concerts according to the program.

The discounts are available for the following categories of the participants:

- 10% for the participants submitting their applications by March,15, 2012
- 10% for the groups of 4 people and more

All the discounts are summed up.

A festival participant awarded the scholarship can bring one accompanying person on condition of their accommodation in one room at the hotel and one cabin onboard a steamboat.

The cost of stay of the accompanying person is 12300 roubles (300 Euros). This includes:

- visa support (if necessary and provided there are cultural relationships between the Russian Federation and your country)
- transfer from the airport, coach or railway station and back provided you arrive and leave on the official dates of the arrival and departure of the festival participants (Arrival – July, 2, 2012, departure – July, 22, 2012(if you are taking the boat trip to Valaam). In case of different arrival/departure dates the participant will have to organize his/her own transfer from the airport or coach/railway station and back by him-/herself.
- accommodation in the room with the person you are accompanying on July, 2-19.
- excursions (the churches of Saint Petersburg, a trip to Novgorod the Great)
- the tickets to all the concerts in the Festival program.

Charged separately:

A trip to Valaam, meals, travel expenses, studying.

The payment is done via the Internet payment system by Visa/MC cards or by Internet money transfer.

The trip to Valaam as part of the students' group of the festival is possible only for the participants of the studying program and their accompanying persons.

For the participants from Saint Petersburg it is possible to take part in the program on the commercial basis for the registration fee and buying a trip to Valaam (only on condition of the available places on the boat).